"Every day at Stone Soup Café is a day of giving thanks. Join Stone Soup Café on this particular Thanks Giving Day to acknowledge, celebrate, and honor Indigenous resistance, while we share a delicious holiday meal that truly welcomes everyone. Stone Soup Café would like to uplift the true history of Thanksgiving, so that we, as a community, can acknowledge and affirm the experiences of Native people. We will pause all food preparations at 12pm to watch a live stream of the National Day of Mourning in the All Souls sanctuary. At 1pm, all are welcome to share a buffet-style meal downstairs in the Café Dining Room while the Live Stream continues upstairs. The meal will also be available for delivery in the morning".
